Pray that staff and students grow closer in their walks with the Lord this stretch. Praise God that we had a good, restful break with family and friends.

Pray that God will be my priority throughout 2012. Praise God for a new year!

Pray for all my goals to be done at school and that everyday I will be closer to God. Praise God for my home visit.

Praise God that home visit went well, also that Kevin is awesome and fun to have as staff.

Praise God for a good transition over home visit. Please pray for me to do well with school and make good decisions.

Praise God for a successful home visit.

Father, I ask that you will help me as I transition home and start school. I praise you that I got into B.M.C.C.

Please pray God will lead us to churches to partner with in advancing the mission of The Fold. Praise God for such a great team of staff that I love working with.

I praise God for the local church & the support that Eric & I have had from them. Pray for us as we prepare to be parents.

Please pray for wisdom and discernment for The Fold Board of Directors as they seek to strengthen and support our staff and ministry. Praise God for providing three new board members!

Praise God the truck is fixed again and pray that it gets us through the winter.

Please pray that I will get all tax documents ready in a timely manner. Praise God for His grace and peace amidst a number of attacks by the enemy on family over the past year.

Praise God for my two years of serving at The Fold. Pray that 2012 will be a year of continued growth and increasing intimacy with Father.

Pray that I will look at myself the way God sees me. Praise God for home visit and being able to see my family. Also for what God taught me last month through being sick.

Please pray that I will seek to know God in deeper and more personal ways.

Praise God that I got to go home for Christmas and praise God for my birthday!

Praise God that we all got to spend time with family and friends over the holidays. Pray that each one of us continues to see other attributes of God which draw us closer to Him.

Praise God for Christmas with my family. Pray for continued growth for the rest of my time at The Fold.

Pray that I will actively choose to be saturated in a God-glorifying attitude daily. Praise God for His brilliant plans & unending love for me.

Pray for staff and students to walk in victory; seeing themselves as God's beloved, full of great worth and beauty. Praise God for His faithful provision of health, strength and wisdom.

Pray for guidance in everyday decisions and in everything I do. Praise God that Christmas went well.

Praise God for my nephew's healing. What the doctors thought was an enlarged liver was an easily treated infection. Please pray for continued patience and submission as God challenges me.

Pray for my brother Phil to begin to seek the Lord. Thank God for my first months here at The Fold.

Pray for a moderate winter to help us save on heating oil. Praise God we got to see our son in Cheyenne right after Christmas.

Praise the Lord for another year of fellowship with Him! Pray that families will draw closer together in the Lord.

Pray that I will have sharp ears to hear God and that I will remember to look for the ways God reveals His heart to me, also for my grandmother's salvation. Praise God I am in phase 3 and for my crazy-awesome temperament.

Praise God for our baby's safe delivery! Pray that God gives us energy for this exciting but exhausting transition.

Pray that relationships continue to grow. Praise God for positive changes and growth in my life.

Pray for staff and students to draw closer to God. Praise God our son Nathan is back safely from Iraq.

Please pray that I will recognize God's guidance every day. Praise God for His never ending love!

Pray that I will keep my focus on God and finish high school soon, by leaning on His strength. Praise God that we got to have family time over the holidays. Praise God for my Fold brothers and sisters.

Happy New Year!
