7	Katie W.—Resident

Please pray that God's love and power will be evident through The Fold's ministry to families, staff and the community.

Pray that guests in the Home will be overwhelmed by the love of Christ shown through us. Praise God for the ways He encourages us in small ways each day.

Pray for a good rest of the stretch and that I get my work done. Praise for God's blessings and the way He meets our needs.

Please pray for graduation. I am really nervous. Pray that I will continue to trust God in every thing. Praise God that I am done with school, also for my family and friends and all of their support.

Pray for my son Nathan who is being deployed to Iraq. Pray for godly men as staff for the Boys' Home. Praise God for the support, love and encouragement from the family here. I couldn't do this job without God and everyone here.

Pray for my son Nathan's protection in Iraq. Praise God that I am part of The Fold family.

Please pray that I will see God in everything. Praise God for being my comforter and provider.

11	Steve—Dir. of Operations
12	Elisabeth—Assoc. Home Dir.
13	Aiyanna– Intern
14	Rey– Resident

Pray for me to continue doing well in the program. Praise God for laughter that brightens my day.

Pray that God's will be done in the lives of the teens, their families and each of us as staff. Praise God for all of you who uphold this ministry with your prayers and financial support, and those who have volunteered and encouraged us in other ways.

Please pray for God's wisdom and discernment for our Board of Directors as they prepare to meet tomorrow.

Pray for the Board as we finalize the new fiscal year budget.

Praise God that He always puts people into our lives who help us grow closer to Him. Pray that I continue to remember that I am renewed daily, and that I will lean on Christ for all my strength.

Father, give me a heart that loves to love You. Give me eyes that will see you in everything.

Pray that God will reduce the medicine that I need and fix my eyes so I won't need contacts. Also pray for my grandmother's salvation.

Praise the Lord that He always has a plan and it is Glorious! Pray that the Lord will bring more staff and students to The Fold.

Pray for God's strength and wisdom as I go through radiation treatments. Praise God for His great love and provision during surgery and for His grace expressed through His people.

Pray that I will fully appreciate and enjoy the short, precious summer season in Vermont.

Pray for continued healing for my aunt Pam and my cousin Rodney. Praise God for my father Richard who turns 55 this month.

Pray for the students and parents to work together to grow over the home visit. Praise God for sunshine and growing things.

Please pray that the staff and students, at The Fold, will deeply know the hope and peace of Jesus!

Please pray for me as I finish up my time in the Girls' Home. Pray that Tim and I will seek and trust the Lord to guide us with our future plans. Praise God for challenges that have led to growth both in my life and the residents' lives.

Please pray that I will improve in my academics.

I am looking forward to work teams coming this summer. Pray that all the lawnmowers keep running.

Please pray that all of the staff and students will really experience Christ's love each day. Praise God for supporters of The Fold!

Pray for me to be able to communicate to people. Praise God that I've made new friends.

Please pray that I will love God & people well & see people as He sees them. Praise God for the amazing people I get to work with.

Please pray that I will seek first God's kingdom. Pray for my newborn nephew as he is having some serious health complications.

Praise God that we are pregnant!!! Please pray for Chantel and baby Welch's health. Please pray that we will rely on the Lord for strength and rest.

Pray that I continue to trust in the Lord and walk with Him. Praise God that I feel new.

Please pray that the residents' families will know the Lord as their source of strength, healing and life.

God speaks in the silence of the heart. Listening is the beginning of prayer.
